

Sustainable sausage packaging

Podanfol, Casa Tarradellas and BASF are joining forces to create sustainable synthetic casings for cured and cooked meat products and cheese. Podanfol has implemented a new casing line named CleanLine where they are using Ultramid® Cycled™ by BASF. As the first brand owner making use of these products, Casa Tarradellas slices the meat and packs it in protective atmosphere. The final product is available in the store.

More about Ultramid® Cycled™ by BASF

More about Podanfol's CleanLine

More about Casa Tarradellas

BASF + technology partners

Chemical recycling (pyrolysis)

1

Podanfol

Production of the CleanLine

2

5

Consumer
Plastic waste

3

Fibraco

Converting and distribution in Spain

4

Casa Tarradellas

Production and packaging of food products

